MaloneBailey hits the ground running in 2010

2010 signifies additional growth and expansion on both national and international fronts for U.S. member MaloneBailey with the expansion to the Chinese market and a newly formed Private Company Practice Team (PCPT).

China

MaloneBailey has been in the Chinese market for two years and continues to actively pursue opportunities in China. With three audit partners focused on this initiative and with one partner who speaks Mandarin fluently, MaloneBailey anticipates continued growth in this region to augment its Chinese audit practice. MaloneBailey ranks in the top 10 firms serving the SEC market in both China and Canada.

PCPT

The newly formed Private Company Practice Team (PCPT) will be focusing its efforts on developing the private company audit and tax practices. Leading the PCPT are newly named Partners David Forrest and Stan Raines. The PCPT was formed to provide a more cohesive approach to privately held companies and is guided by the firm's Client Service Standards, which are founded in the belief that service and communication are paramount to MaloneBailey's success as a full service accounting firm.
